JUNE CHIC ON SALE APRIL 16

DIPLOMATIC DRUG RUNNING—Imagine a group of people who can smuggle millions of dollars' worth of drugs into this country, and the worst penalty is deportation. Ambassadors, their families, staffs and aides—all under the protection of diplomatic immunity—are safe from prosecution, both here and abroad. Tim Anderson tells how some unscrupulous envoys get away with what would cost you 20 years in prison.

POKER AMONG THE GIANTS—They're colorful, brash and ballsy, and once a year they gather at Binion's Horseshoe Casino, in Las Vegas, for the world's highest-stakes poker games. Roger Dionne takes CHIC behind the scenes and into the winning hands of the World Series of Poker—with a pot totaling nearly a million dollars.

LEIGH STEINBERG: DEVIL OR ANGEL SPORTS AGENT?—He doesn't look like an agent, dress like one, or deal with his clients in the typical get-the-money-and-run manner. Yet the players Steinberg represents receive record-setting contracts. He is their psychotherapist, financial counselor and spiritual adviser, and his goal for each of them is a successful life after the games are over. An intriguing profile by Michael Ross.

MUTINY AT SEA—Steve is the captain of the yacht, and Francesca is the owner's wife. Their desire for one another is stronger than the tide; yet her powerful, ruthless husband can end their lives with a single gesture or word to his Mafia compatriots. Sensuous and intricate fiction by Dave Yuzo Spector.

PLUS—An examination of who enjoys sex more—men or women—in SEX LIFE, the burlesque humor of ODDS & ENDS, a mini-profile of porn actor Jack Wrangler in CLOSE-UP, and a heaping helping of CHIC's beautiful women.
